Eid al Hajj 1434 message from the President

Around the world, the Muslim Ummah is celebrating Eid al Hajj which falls on Wednesday 16th October 2013 this year. The occasion of Eid al Hajj is as much spiritual as it is utilitarian. It is spiritual because it instills in all Muslims the concept of the spirit of sacrifice for the pleasure of the Almighty. It is practical because the occasion underscores the need for fellow-feelings on the part of the devotees towards their less fortunate brethren. It is a call for unity and brotherhood for all believing people.

The World Federation launches new book: The Story of Nabi Yusuf

The book is a wonderful description of the story of Nabi Yusuf, and all of the different life-lessons we can learn from it. It has been compiled using a selection of renowned commentaries including Tafseer al-Mizan by Allama Tabatabai, Tafseer-e Namoonah by Ayatullah Makarim Shirazi, Tafseer-e Nur by Shaykh Mohsin Qara'ati, and Manshoor-e Javeed by Ayatullah Subhani, plus others.

Pakistan Relief Fund: An overview of The World Federation's Relief activities in Pakistan since the 2010 floods

The 2010 monsoon floods in Pakistan called for an urgent need for help in a crisis situation. Thanks to the generous, quick and ongoing support of donors from around the globe, The World Federation has been active in providing urgent aid, as well as long term support to the affected men, women and children whose lives were uprooted in a matter of minutes. These families lost their homes, their livelihood and in some instances, their loved ones. Your financial contributions to the Pakistan Relief Fund continue to provide victim families with the support and dignity they need to rebuild their lives, their families and ultimately - their future.

Syrian Refugee Appeal: The impact on Lebanon

Since the upsurge of the conflict in Syria (March 2011), more than 2.1 million Syrians have fled their homes only to take refuge in bordering countries or within Syria itself. According to the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees (UNHCR), over 600,000 people have escaped to Turkey, Lebanon, Jordan and Iraq. However, the actual number of Syrian refugees in these countries seems to be much greater than the UNHCR statistics, which only record those officially registered as refugees.
