ZCSS: Making the impossible seem possible

All over the world, there are families that are barely able to put food on the table, let alone afford an education for their children. That's where supporters of ZCSS come in. Through the Zainabiyya Child Sponsorship Scheme (ZCSS) children have the opportunity to learn and be educated.

They have the chance to obtain the foundation to make a better future for themselves and their families.

Pakistan Relief: 25 new homes bring joy to flood victims of 2010 – Kairpur Nathanshah, Pakistan

In August 2013, The World Federation completed the construction of 25 new homes in Khairpur Nathanshah, District Dadu, Sindh province in Pakistan. 25 families spanning 9 different villages in this city spent the last two years living in ragged tents, mud homes and broken huts. These families lost all of their homes and belongings in the 2010 floods which swept through Pakistan.

Fill My Cup 'Back to School' Campaign: More testimonials from parents

Many children living in the rural areas of Kenya only have a single meal a day. The excessive poverty level, the rising rate of inflation, and the lack of adequate rainfall all make it very difficult for parents to provide a balanced meal 3 times a day for their children.

Hajj = Ritual + Spiritual Part 1 – Watch Live

Given the many rituals involved pilgrims and would be pilgrims want to understand what they will be doing and how to do the performances correctly. At the same time, these to-be pilgrims have a need to understand the historical background and the concept of rituals that make up Hajj. With this mind, The WF Productions has produced a documentary on the topic of Hajj.
