Ali Asghar Water Appeal: The World Federation builds 101 wells across Pakistan

The Ali Asghar Water Appeal is an ongoing initiative by The World Federation to provide access to clean water and sanitation facilities in areas of deprivation. In December 2013, The World Federation funded the construction of 101 hand pumps across Pakistan's poorest villages. Thanks to donors from around the world, all of these hand pumps are now complete and families have easy access to drinking water.

E- Book Review: Selecting a Spouse: The Heavenly Path

I found this book a good guide for the early stages of the whole marriage process, right from what sort of stuff to be thinking about and asking when you first meet ('what will we talk about?') all the way through to making that final decision ('how will I know?'). I would recommend this to guys and girls thinking of getting married as a useful quick read before you get started. It helped me!
