Siege on Westgate Mall kills 68 and injures over 200 – Nairobi, Kenya

Initially thought to be a robbery this assault has now entered its fourth day and has turned into a sensitive and dangerous hostage situation. Officials report that this has become a stand-off as the Kenya military tries to capture the assailants without letting any harm come to those civilians who are still trapped inside.

E-Copy of the Alternatives to Our Current Higher Education Centre Booklet

This research paper has been written by the Education Portfolio of The World Federation of KSIMC. It is an informative education paper on finding alternative destinations to our current higher education. We believe that education is very important in today's society as it provides us with the windows of opportunities to be able to pursue one's dreams.

Hajj – A time for togetherness

Hajj is a special time of the year for Muslims all over the world. Whether you are fortunate enough to be able to perform Hajj this year, or will be wishing your friends and family well on their journey, the month of Zilhajj is close to our heart.

Fill My Cup 'Back to School' Campaign: Testimonials from parents

The World Federation's 'Fill My Cup – Back to School Campaign' provides students ages 6 to 14 across schools in Kenya with a hot and nutritional porridge breakfast each morning. Since the start of this campaign, we have filled over 50,000 empty cups with porridge. This breakfast program is making a big difference in the lives of the children. Parents and teachers have noticed improvements in the students' behaviour and learning at school.

North America

Ramadan Relief Collections

The Ramadhan Relief Fund brought in donations from near and far. In partnership with The World Federation, these donations have enabled us to feed hungry families in different parts of the world.

The World Federation President visits North America

Dr. Asgarali Moledina, President of the World Federation, on his visit to North America in August, visited various Jamaats.

Dr. Moledina discussed many issues and answered questions during the Jamaat visits whilst also sharing a few initiatives The World Federation has embarked on.
