Too Many Pharmacists – Too few jobs!

A recent report published by the Centre of Workforce Intelligence suggested that by the year 2040, 19,000 pharmacists will find themselves without a job if no action is taken now. In the past there were too many jobs chasing too few pharmacists. However today the situation has reversed and we have too many pharmacists chasing too few jobs.

Fill My Cup ‘Back to School’ Campaign: Help 3,968 children in Kenya by sharing a short video with your family, friends, and communities

The World Federation’s ‘Fill My Cup – Back to School Campaign’ addresses hunger among 3,968 school children in Kenya by providing them with a hot and nutritional porridge breakfast each morning. Since the start of this campaign, we have filled over 50,000 empty cups with porridge.

Eid al Hajj 1434: One more week to arrange your goat qurbani in time for Eid

The World Federation is now taking orders for goat Qurbanis to be performed on your behalf on the blessed occasion of Eid al Hajj. The Qurbanis will be arranged in Kenya, Tanzania and Sri Lanka where the meat will distributed among deserving families including widows and orphans. Most of these families are not able to afford meat and so it is not part of their regular diet. The Qurbani meat will provide them with nutritional benefits and link them to people around the world who are thinking of them during the Eid al Hajj celebration.

Fill My Cup 'Back to School' Campaign: Help prevent stunting with a hot porridge breakfast

Stunting means to stop, slow down or hinder physical and psychological development. An estimated 180 million children under the age of 5 suffer from stunting worldwide; these are children whose bodies and minds are limited because of stunted growth. Stunting or stunted growth is a result of chronic nutritional deficiencies.

ZCSS success story: Achieving their dreams

Education is the bridge that lets an individual cross from dreams to reality. The Zainabiyya Child Sponsorship Scheme (ZCSS) helps build that bridge. Through ZCSS, individuals can sponsor a student so that he/she may receive an education which they otherwise may not be able to afford. Read More
