

World Federation Newswire 20 March 2013

In the name of Allah, the Most Kind, the Most Merciful

News and Events

The World Federation News

Seek Knowledge even if it is as far as Korea

The benefits of having a university education are manifold and range from financial to cultural. The Holy Prophet (SAW) has said "Seek Knowledge even if it as far as China." A perfect example of this quote was done by one of our very own community sisters. Fatima Munir Walji has gone all the way to Korea to achieve her dream of learning 15 languages.

Pakistan Genocide Appeal: Weekend Telethon rallies worldwide support

On Sunday 17 March, The World Federation hosted a live televised telethon to raise funds and awareness of the Pakistan Genocide Appeal in the wake of the escalating violent attacks against Shia and other Muslims across Pakistan.

Competition for Madrasah students: Name our latest book!

In 2013, The World Federation is going to publish a book on the daily prayers ('Salah' / 'Salaat' / 'Namaz') that is aimed at Madrasah students in their final classes, typically aged 12-14. We are now running a competition for all community

Madaris throughout the world to suggest a catchy title for this new book.

Calling Upon Peer Advisors

We are seeking a vibrant group of youth leaders to act as Peer Advisors for prospective and current International Students from our community. Peer Advisors will be mentors and friends to foreign students and will provide valuable advice / assistance through the student's journey.

A guide to Universities in India

India has the second largest Higher Education System in the world offering the widest spectrum of courses. The quality of education offered by Indian Institutions is globally recognized. Cultural and Religious diversity on Indian campuses contributes towards the all-round development. Besides a safe learning environment, the cost of education is very reasonable.

Marhuma Masuma Mawjee passes away in accident – Essex, UK

Masuma Mawji, 25 years old, passed away on 5th March 2013 in a tragic road traffic accident. She was the daughter of Mahamadhusein Mawji and Mumtaz Mawji, and was one of four sisters.

Africa

The Africa Federation Education Board News Flash: 01/2013

The EBS of The Africa Federation has released its latest News Flash.

Mazaher Bandali fights the odds and earns his MBA in Tanzania

Mazaher Mustafa Bandali was awarded with his MBA in International Business on 1 March in Dar es Salaam Tanzania. He graduated with honors as he was within the top 10 of his class. His future plans are to pursue his PhD.

To view the detailed newswire or to register, visit www.world-federation.org To share comments or views, please email secretariat@world-federation.org