

World Federation Newswire 23 April 2014

In the name of Allah, the Most Kind, the Most Merciful

News and Events

The World Federation News

Shan E Abbas Hassam gives some insight into The World Federation of KSIMC's upcoming Triennial conference

The Secretary General of The World Federation of KSIMC, Shan E Abbas Hassam, recently sat with interviewer, Sakina Datoo, and shared his thoughts on the upcoming Triennial Conference. This will be held on Friday 16th to Sunday 18th May 2014 in Dar es Salaam, Tanzania. The World Federation conference is held every three years and allows the current team to report back on the work achieved during the term. The conference is attended by individuals from all over the world and this year, over 100 delegates and invitees are expected to attend.

An interview with Munawer Rattansey – Vice President of The World Federation of KSIMC

Munawer Rattansey sat with interviewer, Sakina Datoo, to discuss his work as the VP of The World Federation. He describes in his interview what he enjoys about the role, especially the variety of the work he does, which he finds very interesting, yet at the same time, challenging.

Al-Aqila Middle School Project: sponsorship opportunities to build 8 classrooms – Najaf, Iraq

The Al-Aqila Primary School is a Shia Muslim school in Najaf, Iraq which aims to provide excellence in education for the region's orphan and non-orphan children. The Al-Aqila Middle School Project is a new initiative where graduates of the primary level can continue their education in a stable, caring and progressive environment. Construction of this new school in Najaf has already begun and The World Federation is pleased to support this initiative to ensure that children have the opportunity to continue their education in hope for a brighter more prosperous future.

The World Federation announces 2014 Boys Youth Course in Mumbai

The World Federation India Office has started preparations for the upcoming Youth Course in May 2014. The course is aimed at providing Islamic guidance & support, personal development and sports activities throughout the 3 day and 3 night camp.

The World Federation sponsors External Tableegh work in Sweden and Scandinavia

The World Federation has recently sponsored the translation and publication of the famous book regarding Imam Ali (as): 'The Voice of Human Justice' from English to Swedish. Once complete, this book will be accessible by people throughout Scandinavia.

The World Federation of KSIMC seeks Islamic Education Manager

The World Federation of KSIMC seeks a manager to join their team in the Islamic Education Department. The manager's main duty will be to plan, develop, lead, and report on the Islamic Education projects and initiatives, with leadership and innovation.

The World Federation of KSIMC seeks part time Islamic Education Administration & Secretarial Support

Those interested in applying should have experience in office management and should work well individually and within a team. The candidate should have excellent communications skills and be proficient in Microsoft Office. Applicants should be available to work weekday mornings and also be able to adopt a flexible working policy to work alongside Office Bearers and Assistant Secretary Generals as needed.

North America

NASIMCO annual conference 2014

This year's NASIMCO conference theme will be Islamic Charities & Charity Law. Representation by all Jamaats at the conference will be greatly valued as we discuss how our community nonprofit organizations can strengthen their governance standards and improve financial accountability with regards to moving charitable funds. There will be a presentation and workshop by a lawyer to help understand local and international laws regarding charity and how to comply to those laws.

Community News - As-Sadiq Islamic School, Toronto

Five students from As-Sadiq Islamic School in Toronto participated in the York Region Science Fair on Saturday, April 5, 2014.

Remembering Marhum Akbarali Rajmohamed

Marhum Akbarbhai Rajmohamed was one of the founding members of the Allentown Jamaat over 40 years ago. He was born in Uganda in 1931 and went to India for further education. He returned to Uganda where he opened his first general merchandise store in a town called Jeza. A few years later, he opened another store in Masindi.

To view the detailed newswire or to register, visit www.world-federation.org To share comments or views, please email secretariat@world-federation.org