CoEJ launches Internal Mediation Service

We at the Council of European Jamaats (CoEJ), take pleasure in informing you of the work we are doing in terms of setting up the CoEJ Internal Mediation Service. This is an alternative dispute resolution (ADR) provision – seeking to help resolve interpersonal disputes between people within any of our member jamaats. An interpersonal dispute is a relationship driven conflict between two or more people.

Volunteers required to join CoEJ team

The Council of European Jamaats is looking for volunteers to join the secretariat team. Based from home, the volunteers will be required to do basic internet research and write half a page articles for the weekly newswire. There are 168 hours in a week and all we are asking is for 4 hours of your time to serve your community.

Volunteer for the Stanmore Jaffery's tube collection!

The Stanmore Jaffery's Tube Collection is back once again! On Thursday 24 April 2014 we're inviting the community to collect money at several Zone 1 and 2 tube stations in London order to raise funds for The World Federation Ali Asghar Water Appeal. All funds raised through this appeal will be used to provide clean water and sanitation to some of the poorest communities in Pakistan. In particular, funds raised through this tube collection will be used to restore handpumps and build new wells.
