The World Federation Syrian Refugee Appeal –Please Donate now

Close to 2 million Syrians have been forced to leave their homes and have become refugees. According to the UNHCR, the United Nations Refugee Agency more than 715,000 Syrians have fled to Lebanon. These victims have left everything behind, and most have arrived with nothing more than the clothing on their backs. Devastated, they are trying to survive with little money and food.

Eid al Hajj 1434: Arrange your Qurbani today in time for Eid

The Qurbanis will be arranged in Kenya, Tanzania and Sri Lanka where the meat will be distributed among deserving families including widows and orphans. Most of these families are not able to afford meat and so it is not part of their regular diet. The Qurbani meat will provide them with nutritional benefits and link them to people around the world who are thinking of them during the Eid al Hajj celebration.

ZCSS Success Story: Education – never taken for granted

For hundreds of children in countries like Kenya, Tanzania, India, Pakistan, Sri Lanka and Haiti, education is a luxury.

Some families can barely put food on the table, let alone be able to afford to send their children to school. As these children grow up, they ache to gain an education and build a life and future for themselves and their families.

Live Goat Appeal – Looking at some of the people this appeal has already helped

The purpose of this scheme is to provide women groups in rural centres with live goats for rearing and breeding. It is aimed that each member of the rural centres should have a goat so that they are reared and bred to reproduce more. By rearing and breeding goats, members benefit from the goats' milk as well as boost their family income in the future by selling the surplus goats.

Fill My Cup Appeal | Back to School Campaign

The 'Fill My Cup' appeal works with a number of schools in East Africa to provide children with a good healthy breakfast before school. The results of this project speak for themselves.
