

The Council of European Jamaats in collaboration with The World Federation are organising an Introduction to

Parent Coaching WORKSHOP

Training for trainers

- Give the team of Coaches the necessary skills to guide young parents to develop their parenting skills.
- Give Coaches the skills to be able to support parents in providing a positive framework focussing on challenges they face.
- Give coaches the skills to help parents find solutions which will be practical and easy to implement.
- Give Coaches the opportunity to enable parents to celebrate parenthood, feel confident in their parenting styles, communicate effectively with their children and raise confident individuals.

The Training Programme will be delivered by Lorraine Thomas, who is the Chief Executive of the pioneering Parent Coach Academy and UK's leading Parent Coach. She frequently appears in the national media and is a regular columnist with the popular magazine, Practical Parenting. Lorraine coaches clients in Europe, China and USA.

She is much in demand as a speaker and presents seminars for parents and parenting professionals in the corporate, public and voluntary sectors.

She graduated from Cambridge University with a first class honours degree and is a qualified teacher.

This workshop is designed to train parents within the Community to learn skills to facilitate Parenting Workshops.

We are looking for dedicated Couples who will help the organisation to develop this programme in the community.

This training day is the first in a series of Workshops to be delivered to give participants the skills and confidence to run similar programmes within their community.
