Sunday, 9th March'14 marks the day, when CoEJ Executives collectively discussed the way forward. The engagement began with invoking the words of the Almighty and reminding ourselves of our duties to every stakeholder of the community. This was then followed by the host Jamaat's President, Br. Shabir Sabur welcome address.

CoEJ Youth Leaders Conference in Paris - A journey to a vision

Alijawad Mamdani writes, "When I first heard of the Youth Leadership Conference 2014 I really wasn't sure what to expect. I didn't have a pre-conceived notion or idea in my head since I had learnt from the previous leadership event organised by CoEJ to always go to everywhere with an open mind."

"The story of women's struggle for equality belongs to no single feminist nor to any one organization but to the collective efforts of all who care about human rights."

With Sunday marking International Women's Day, a greater awareness for women's equality and a desire to inspire change is foremost in our minds. Often we see Muslim communities as being patriarchal, and can often overlook the role of women in strengthening and furthering our causes - be it in terms of their professional roles, establishing core values and of course spreading of the message of Islam.

Economic upliftment committee of KSIMC of Birmingham launches “E-Commerce” Portal

Keeping in mind the Global Economic situation and striving to find better solutions to assist all our community members, the Economic Upliftment Committee has launched a community project to provide certain business tools almost free to the entire Shia Ithna Asheri Community in general and the members of Birmingham Jamaat in particular. This project provides free “e – commerce” package for any small to medium size businesses including corporate businesses.
