Passports:

To enter Madagascar, a passport valid for six months after date of entry is required by all nationals referred to in the chart above.

Visas:

Visas for Madagascar are required by all nationals referred to in the chart above, except transit passengers continuing their journey by the same or first connecting aircraft within 24 hours providing they hold onward or return documentation and do not leave the airport.

Return or onward tickets are required.

Visa note:

Foreign visitors to Madagascar of most nationalities can obtain a tourist visa on arrival, provided they have at least one blank page in their passport reserved for the Immigration Authorities of Madagascar

Visas for a stay of up to 90 days can be processed on arrival in Madagascar, or this can be arranged before travelling.

For stays over three months, nationals will need to apply for a long-stay visa from the Madagascan Ministry of Interior.

The Embassy of Madagascar in France can issue a one-month visa (€105) extendable into a long-stay visa to enable the applicant to finalise his/her dossier in Madagascar at the Ministry of Interior.

Types and cost:

Single-entry tourism visas for stays of up to one month: US$35

Multiple-entry tourism visas for stays of up to 90 days: US$84

Validity:

Visas for Madagascar are issued for stays of up to 90 days and are valid for six months from date of issue.

Application to:

Consulate (For consular section at embassy).

From 23/02/2011 there will no longer be a Madagascan Embassy in the UK. All visas for a stay of up to 90 days will be available on arrival in Madagascar. All visas require for longer than this will need to be applied for at the Madagascan Embassy in France.

Working days:

Visas for Madagascar are generally processed the same day for personal applications; it takes around three to four working days to process postal applications.

Requirements:

- Passport (valid for at least 6 months and available blank pages)
- Completed application form
- 2 x Passport Sized Photographs (recently taken and against a white background - IMPORTANT!)
- Copy of round-trip ticket or itinerary
- Proof of status.
