International Relief and Development: 5 Reasons to donate to The World Federation's annual programs

Inspired by our religious values that govern our responsibility towards humankind, The World Federation is addressing poverty within the poorest and deprived communities across the globe, by providing access to education, economic development, and improvements in healthcare and water services for all. We exist to serve. With 31st December only a few days away, please support The World Federation's charitable work with your tax-deductible donation. Your continued care will help dry tears and bring joy to the faces of so many struggling men, women and children who count on our programs day after day.

Going Back to College after 40!

Going back to college after 40?! What? Is the answer most people respond to when you tell them you are considering to go back to college. Don't let this discourage you! It's never too late to go back to college. If you are over 40, chances are that you are more mature and confident in yourself and your goals than you were when you were 20.
