Further bombings in Syria

On Friday 24 August 2012, an armed group set off explosions at the Shrine of Sayyid Muhsin located in the district of Mashhad in the city of Aleppo, Syria. According to the Alalam News Agency, the reason behind this act was to create a sectarian strife among the Muslims by using the Shrine as a target.

ZCSS's Multiplier Effect

The World Federation has encountered various individuals who have been sponsored by ZCSS to complete their further education, often go back to their communities and serve in vital posts such as teaching, medicine, dentistry, optometry or Business Development. It is by sponsoring such dedicated students who go back to be the means of development and societal change that serves as an immeasurable multiplier effect to our investment in financing further education.
