Delivering the Future: From 'spare change' to 'life change'

On Day 6 of our journey, we visited two 'Jogi' villages where The World Federation constructed two Islamic Centres and placed two religious guides. As well, 100 new homes were built and gifted to displaced families affected by the 2010 floods. It was here where we saw for ourselves the far-reaching effects of our work in Pakistan.

Haji Naji 71 years Death Anniversary Monograph by MARC

The Khoja Shia Ithnaasheri Community owes an eternal debt of gratitude to a teacher and student who transformed our Community. That teacher is Mulla Qadir Husein Karbalai and the student is Gulamali Ismail, popularly known as Haji Naji. During the latter half of the 19th century the significant role played by Mulla Qadir Hussein Kerbala and later as community evolved the early students of Mulla Qadir Hussein such as Haji naji who stand out as beacons of Tabligh in the Community.
