New Publication: Adventures of a Qur'anic Family

Sun Behind The Cloud Publications has launched its first book this month entitled Adventures of a Qur'anic Family introducing an innovative way of teaching children about Islamic values. How great would it be if we, as families, could learn at least some of the verses from the Holy Qur'an and apply them in our daily situations. This would be a big step in helping our children to understand the Holy Book and apply its teachings in their lives, thus utilising the Qur'an for what it is meant for.
